ALBANY SUICIDE IS IDENTIFIED AS RICHMOND WOMAN

Rain Has No Effect On Merrymaking At Club Fair Opening

Rain made a desperate assault on merrymaking at the Richmond Club parade and opening of the two-day fair at the club quarters on Nevin avenue last night. But rain was vanquished, the forces of Merrymaking completely driving the attempt to spread a damper on the proceedings.

At 8 by the Richmond Concert Band, followed by city officials, automobiles containing prominent club women, floats of local business houses and vehicles of every description from which boys and girls canopied the spectators who stood along the line of march with confetti and streamers, the parade left the clubhouse shortly after 7:30 o'clock, countermarched along Macdonald avenue and returned to the clubhouse.

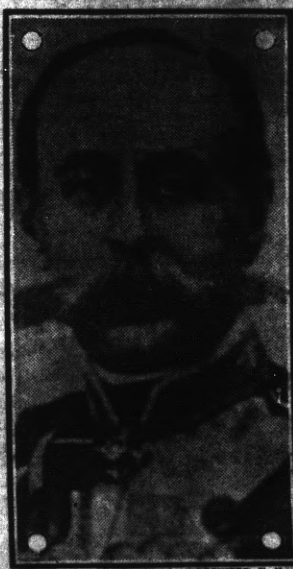

Here hundreds gathered. It was a miniature fairyland scene. Here was a tea garden at which pretty maids and matrons garbed in Japanese raiment presided. There a quaint booth, presided over by comely maids and matrons in quaint Colonial garb. And Germany, and England, and Russia. These and other countries were represented.

Score of electric lights draped in vari-colored bunting and flowers gave an effective setting to the scene.

The affair was a success, a big success, in fact. Tonight the fair will close. There will be new features. This is promised by the women in charge. Arrangements have been made to accommodate five hundred, a thousand and even more.

Do there!

CORPSE IS THAT OF MRS. CLARKE DECLARES GIRL

Faded Beauty Of Underworld Disappeared Three Years Ago; Turns Gas In Dreary Room

That the supposed suicide whose body was found in a rooming house in Albany Tuesday night may be Kitty Clark, well known woman of the underworld, formerly of Richmond, was announced last night following a partial identification of an unknown woman who called at the morgue at a late hour.

The woman refused to give her name, but said she had read descriptions of the woman in the papers and believed she could identify the woman.

When she was shown the body, she said: "That is not the woman I thought it was, but I know her. She is Kitty Clark, who formerly operated the well known resort, Old School Dance Hall, near Grand Canyon Park, Richmond."

The tragedy was discovered Tuesday by the Berkeley police. The woman had been dead several days. She engaged the room September 11, and moved a trunk and mattress in October 1. She ordered the gas turned on. When she was found a blanket covered her head, and her face was against a gas jet, which was turned on.

She is described as a woman weighing about 140 pounds, about 45 years of age, 5 feet 6, thin, rather good looking, and with artificial red hair over her natural gray hair. She had two prominent gold teeth.

The description in a general way tallied in every respect to the description of the woman in the local police station, and with the oral descriptions given by those who formerly knew her.

She operated the well known resort up to shortly over two years ago. From here she was believed to have gone to Stockton, where she apparently dropped from sight. It was reported more than a year ago that she was dead, but no death records were found, and it was believed to have been an unfounded rumor.

Although the identification is not absolute, it is generally believed that the body found was that of Kitty Clark.

FIRE IS CAUSE OF TRAIN DELAY

Traffic over the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal system, between Oakland and Richmond was delayed twice yesterday. In one instance a fire at Thirtieth street and San Pablo avenue, in Oakland, forced the cars to stop up their service. The derailing of a work train at Pullman was responsible for the other delay.

OLD NEWSPAPER CLUB EXHIBIT

Bearing the date of June 20, 1801, a copy of the Commercial Advertiser was placed under glass cover and added as an exhibit for the Richmond Club's two-day fair, which opened last night.

The old paper is one of the earliest copies of the oldest daily paper in the United States. It is the property of Ralph Goodwin, of this city.

Although yellow with age the paper is still in excellent state of preservation.

C. H. Morgan, foreman of the job department of the Daily News returned yesterday from Monterey.

Johnson Case May go to the Minors' Court

When Kenneth Johnson appeared in the Superior Court for arraignment on a charge of felony, in which a 10-year-old Richmond girl is alleged to be the victim, his attorney, C. A. Clark, claimed his client was only 17 years of age. If he is under 18 his case will be one for the juvenile court to deal with and the penalty, if found guilty, confinement at one of the industrial schools of the state until he is of age. The case, upon the claim of the attorney, was continued until next Wednesday, when the defendant will be required to prove his age.

"GENERAL" KELLY IS OUT OF JAIL

"General" Kelly, well known leader of the Army of the Unemployed, who caused much commotion in Richmond recently, who was jailed in Sacramento, and released after serving his term of imprisonment a few days ago, has taken the stump against District Attorney Wachhorst and Sheriff Donnelly, both of Sacramento, candidates for re-election.

CARR HAD PLANNED TO SUE FOR $11,750,000; TO BE BURIED TODAY

Lawrence Carr, aged wanderer, inventor, and well known character in many states and in Canada, was buried yesterday, unattended by friends and relatives, and without other identification than the letters and documents which he had in his possession.

That he had been working during the last years of his life to recover alleged damages due him from the Canadian government for misappropriation of his patent rights was disclosed by a file of correspondence between himself, President Wilson and government officials.

The letters were not a complete file, and the inventions which he had patented were not described. He claims the rights to five devices, the patents for which he values at $550,000 each. He also had a $19, 000,000 damage claim, leaving his total claim against the Canadian government at $11,750,000.

His letters to federal officers set forth in detail the reasons for demanding damages, and an attempt to prove that the Canadian government took for its own use his devices.

In his letters he spoke of compiling a book on his patents, and alluded to an intention of giving the American public the description of his work and patents, as well as how the Canadian government made use of them.

P. B. Plak, 2633 Sixteenth street, Oakland, visited the Smallwood parlors, from where the funeral took place, in an effort to identify the man as a former friend of his, but was unable to establish an identity.

WEINSTOCK HEARD BY BIG CROWD

Says Compensation Act Pays Its Own Expenses; Godsend To Worker and Small Employer

The meeting held under the auspices of the Progressives of Richmond in the Lincoln school auditorium drew many, despite the rain.

Colonel Harris Weinstock was the principal speaker, and as president of the Industrial Accident Board outlined the work of his department. T. H. Bloodgood and H. D. Loveland of the Board of Control and the Railroad Commission were also present. Superintendent of Schools W. T. Helms acted as chairman.

Dealing with the gigantic storm of criticism and opposition which was raised when the Industrial Accident Commission was first proposed, Weinstock quoted the statements of the heads of large manufacturing plants as highly in favor of the commission and its work by way of contrast.

OUTLINES HISTORY OF ACT.

He outlined the history of the movement, and said:

"California is at the tail end of the procession. The movement originated in Germany, when Bismarck outlined a form of workmen's compensation."

Tax Collector Is Puzzled

County Tax Collector Martin Joost is slightly puzzled. He is puzzled for the reason that he isn't sure whether or not taxes can be paid in checks on San Francisco banks. The reason is this: The law of the state of California says that all taxes must be paid in gold coin of the United States. At present the banks are short of gold and are paying large withdrawals in greenbacks. Of course greenbacks may be just as valuable as gold, but not so in the eyes of the law. Therefore, Tax Collector Joost is puzzled.

START CONCRETE WORK ON PILES

The work of concreting the piles on the Belt Line Railway Company's dock has started. The work is now in full course of construction. It is estimated that it will be from a week to ten days before the task is completed.

TEN YEARS FOR $26 THEFT

E. Edwards, the Walnut Creek and Danville forger, almost staggered when he was sentenced to imprisonment in the San Quentin penitentiary for ten years by Superior Judge R. H. Latimer at Martinez.

He had pleaded guilty to the charge of forgery in which he signed the name of E. B. Anderson to a check for $26 he had attempted to cash at the saloon of W. S. Burpee at Walnut Creek.

He had previously cashed a check for the same amount upon J. A. Freitas at Danville. When he was taken into custody by Constable Arthur R. Williams he claimed that he had been drinking heavily.

Frank Miller, who with Charles Grindfelder, was charged with burglary committed in Richmond, was upon pleading guilty, sentenced by Judge Latimer to five years in the penitentiary at San Quentin. Grindfelder was given until Monday, when the probation officer will look into his case and learn if he is worthy of having clemency extended to him.

Many Respond To Appeal For Aid For Needy

There was an immediate response yesterday to the appeal of the Daily News for aid for the Bender family. Hardly had the day started before subscribers of this paper began coming into the office with offers of help.

Later in the day bundles of clothes were brought to the office. Fruit, vegetables, coffee, tea, jellies and butter were also brought.

A wagon load was taken to the Bender home on Thirteenth street late in the afternoon.

"God bless the Daily News and the kind people of Richmond," said Mrs. Bender when the gifts were brought to the door of the cottage that is so inadequate for her large family.

A fund has been started to pay the rent for the cottage. Only a small amount is needed to pay a month's rental and if any of our readers desire they may bring or send their donations to this office.

TOTAL VOTE OF COUNTY 16,164

The voting strength of Contra Costa county reaches a total of 16,164, according to a semi-official estimate made by County Clerk J. H. Wells yesterday, in which he allows for the returns to come in from several deputies.

This far exceeds the number on the great register of any previous year and multiplying this total by three and a half, the total population of the county is shown to be close to 50,000 and probably exceeds that by several thousand, as there are many residents employed in the various activities who are not citizens. In fact, Contra Costa has a larger number of foreign residents than any other county of its population in the state.

With election day close at hand, the county clerk's office from now on will be kept busy in the work of preparing for the day when the ballots are to fall.

The supervisors have not yet fixed the day of election officers, but it is understood it will be the same as paid at the primary election.

SHOWERS FOR TODAY.

Umbrellas and overcoats were resorted to for the first time of the present season yesterday, when a light rain began falling shortly after 3 o'clock. A drizzling downpour continued throughout the night. Weather Forecaster Wilson forecasts showers today.

THINK BURNING OF BARN WAS WORK OF AN INCENDIARY

Working on the theory that the blaze, which destroyed the barn in the rear of the McGann home on Second street Wednesday night was the work of an incendiary, the local police department is conducting an investigation of the affair. For the past few days the Alameda authorities have been searching for a fire bug who has been firing barns in the Encinal city. A number of barns have been destroyed in this manner and it is thought that the activity of the Alameda police has resulted in driving the perpetrators from that city to Richmond.

A careful watch is being kept to prevent the incendiary if he should be in this vicinity from doing any further damage.

THE BIG HEARTED PEOPLE OF RICHMOND.

Yesterday we printed an appeal to the people of Richmond. It wasn't what is called "sob stuff." It was merely a straight statement of facts. An overworked mother, laden with the cares of eight children, courageously fighting for the cure of her oldest boy, sick with diphtheria; the father working, but unable to draw any money, terrible poverty in the midst of a prosperous city—that was the Bender story.

The Daily News is delivered to its subscribers early in the morning. Yesterday, hardly more than a few minutes after the paper had been delivered, the fine, big-hearted women of Richmond began to come into the office, anxious to help.

It was a revelation, a revelation that warmed the heart and renewed one's belief in the goodness of folks.

It is good to know that people are kind and sympathetic. It is good to discover real altruism. And it was real altruism that the Daily News discovered yesterday. When our subscribers gave they gave with no ostentation.

Smiling just a little confusedly, they would say: "And please don't mention my name. I just want to help, that's all."

It wasn't the rich that answered so promptly. It wasn't those that had plenty of everything. It was mostly members of that great class that is "in medium circumstances," and indeed there were those who deprived themselves to give.

The editor of the Daily News wishes to thank the subscribers of the Daily News for their splendid response to the appeal for help.

With the brave little woman, who is fighting the big fight out in a little two-roomed cottage on Thirteenth street, we want to say: "God bless you!"

A BIG STEP FORWARD.

Appearing beneath the imposing words, "Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 7, adding Section 81 to Article XIII of the Constitution," on the November ballot, is a measure which, if made a law, will be a long step towards the realization of a complete democracy.

The proposed law, called Home Rule in Taxation, reads as follows:

"Any county, city and county, city or town, may exempt from taxation for local purposes the following classes of property: Improvements in, on, or over land; shipping; household furniture; livestock; merchandise; machinery; tools; farming implements; vehicles; other personal property except franchises. Any ordinance or resolution of any county, city and county, city or town, exempting property from taxation, as in this section provided, shall be subject to a referendum vote as by law provided for resolutions or ordinances. Taxes levied upon property not exempt from taxation shall be uniform."

At present, with the initiative, referendum and recall, "Home Rule" is practically realized by the various political subdivisions of California in everything but taxation. Voters have the right, locally, to say how money shall be spent, but they have not the right to say how the money shall be raised. Under the workings of the Home Rule in Taxation amendment, they shall have that latter right.

The general trend of the century is towards giving the people more and more to say in what concerns them. And the principle of this constitutional amendment is in keeping with the general movement onward.

Under the law, Richmond, if it wanted to stimulate a certain industry, or if it wanted to encourage home building, could exempt from local taxation factories or houses or furniture.

To vote against the measure would be to admit that you think yourself incompetent to run your own affairs.

Assembly constitutional amendment No. 7 gives us what, in theory, the constitution gives us already, the right to run our own business in our own home town as we see fit.

HE DEFENDS VEALE.

A Martinez daily, in a recent issue, takes the Daily News to task for "finding editorial fault with the sheriff's office for its actions in the Emerson case."

The paper goes on to say that the release of the dynamite and employe of the John P. Irish bunch by Sheriff Veale was a "scheme."

It was upon the order of Sheriff Veale arrested, when that "scheme" didn't produce any startling evidence against Emerson's employe.

"It was not upon the demand of any one that the arrest was made," says the brilliant young journalist.

From that we presume that the sheriff waits for orders before he makes an arrest. At that it was very intelligent of the sheriff to make the pinch after he had released Emerson and the press of the state was making such a lot of noise about it.

Concluding, the paper says: "It appears particularly to be out of place to cast any reflections upon the officers when the suspect is behind the bars."

We don't think so. Veale might let him go again! Our Martinez contemporary's view point is as twisted as his rhetoric.

The Observer

A WHAT'S WHAT AND WHO'S WHO OF RICHMOND DAILY DOINGS; WITH COMMENTS

No, The End Is Not Yet Viva La Dental Clinic!

It may be that Richmond will have a dental clinic to take care of the school children's teeth, after all.

The movement is not dead. It is only sleeping.

The eternal spark of life is still ablaze.

The Observer put in yesterday getting the story from those who set out to establish the clinic here.

It seems that all that is needed now is the approval of the school board, and the sum of approximately $400 to fit up quarters for the work.

The money can come from the school bond fund.

The dentists of the city stand by their original offer to give an hour a week.

Of course a few of them are doing cold water on the project.

But the dentists as a whole seem anxious to co-operate with the city health department in getting the plan in operation.

With the time of the dentists donated, all that would be required to make a self-supporting clinic would be a small charge, say of 10 cents, to pay for materials and supplies.

Happy Is He Who Makes Life Easier For Others

Richmond is big hearted.

Its people are quick in lending a helping hand to relieve suffering and hunger in a family in less fortunate circumstances than themselves.

The happiest faces that the Observer has seen were those who were bringing in their mite to relieve and make happy the needy family.

Much comment on the street has been invoked over the real estate interest in the location of the temporary city hall site.

The Observer hasn't heard a wild factory tale for several weeks.

ADS ARE POPULAR READING.

A newspaper's information also varied it contains news to suit everyone. Some years ago a person who read the ads in a newspaper or magazine was considered odd, and it is true the ads were crude, the articles advertised often being out of season or of a style and texture entirely out of fashion. But now it is different. Advertising furnishes the most interesting reading matter in the newspaper. It is instructive, teaching the public how to reduce the cost of living and at the same time get the best standard goods.

If you don't already read ads—get the habit—it's a liberal education.

Give the Daily News classified columns the "once over." You may find some valuable information. Besides it is interesting reading.

LABOR NEWS

"In unity there is strength, united we stand divided we fall."

BUILDING TRADES COUNCIL MEETING IS ADDRESSED BY OAKLAND LABOR SPEAKER

In an address to the Building Trades Council last night, Frank Reister of Local No. 342, Oakland Steamfitters, declared that the unions of Alameda county are making great progress and that the movement there has a bright outlook.

"It is rumored," he said, "that the next great open shop fight is to be staged in Alameda county. The Stockton fight was meant to be the vaccination of California with the open shop serum, but because of good blood it didn't take at all."

R. Henderson, E. Lumpkins and J. Riordan were seated as delegates from Hod Carriers' Union No. 274.

It was reported that Richmond unions are fourth in the amount of money they have donated to Stockton per capita.

The committee that is handling the Clifford Hottinger case made a financial report and declared that Hottinger, who is in the city and county hospital in San Francisco, will have to be operated on. The abscess which grew out of a bruise some time ago will necessitate the grafting on of a piece of bone.

ALL FEDERATION OFFICERS ARE RE-ELECTED

STOCKTON, Oct. 8.—The unanimous re-election of practically all officers of the California State Federation of Labor was the feature of today's session of the convention of that body.

President D. P. Haggerty and Secretary-Treasurer Paul Scharrenberg, both of San Francisco, were re-elected without opposition. Paul Scharrenberg was elected delegate to the convention of the American Federation of Labor, to be held in Philadelphia next month.

At this writing the convention is engaged in a heated discussion of the question of endorsing the constitutional amendment known as the minimum wage, which provides for the establishing by law of a minimum wage for women and minors.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

BIG CHANGES IN LEAGUE CLUBS IS RUMORED

Big shakeups in all teams of the Midwinter League are expected. Rumor was current yesterday to the effect that the Cheek Outlaws intended putting on a new pitcher. Ming, who has been twirling for the Cheek aggregation for the past month, will probably continue on the staff. It is also understood that line-up changes are contemplated. It is fairly certain that the other clubs will pick up some of the material which will be running around loose following the close of the regular season. In the meantime, those young men that are holding berths are hanging on tight, and are taking no chances. The league promises to give the fans a mighty nice article of baseball and fair attendances are assured.

Next Sunday the Outlaws and Winehaven boys will meet at 12:30 o'clock on the First street grounds. At 3 o'clock the Athletics and Red Men will tangle on the same pasturage.

Yesterday was a lunchless day at the high school. Pie reigned supreme and even vied with Jupiter Pluvius in besmattering the landscape. (As it didn't rain very much, I insist that I do not exaggerate.)

Besides old Jupe, Dame Fortune attended the sale, with the result that the handsome sum of $27.85 was added to the student body fund. The bidding was considerably higher than at the first pie sale, held last year, the total sum not reaching the $34 mark of last year on account of there being fewer pies for auctioning.

The greatest hardship of the day was upon the boys of the football team, who had to go out for a rigorous practice following school.

Cheer up, Pie Day comes but once a year.

GIRLS' FIRST TEAM TO MEET McKINLEY INTRO. HIGH THIS AFTERNOON

The first team of girls' basketball will this afternoon play their second game of the season with the nine basketballers representing the McKinley Introductory high of Berkeley. The game will be played in the local "gym."

McKinley high's team is considered somewhat faster than the nine of Mrs. Head's school, also of the college town, so that the game promises to be close, interesting and largely attended.

No lineup changes were announced by Captain Kreuger.

FRANKLIN TAKES 2ND TEAM DOWN

By a score of 24 to 16, the second team of girls' basketball players were yesterday defeated by the nine from Franklin Introductory high school of Berkeley. The game played on the local courts was interesting and close at many points. The local girls can be credited with having made a hard fight for the game.

The game was played as a practice game and served the purpose excellently, as the local players were playing more for form than for points. According to Coach Gaynor of the University of California, the second team showed up well, considering that it was its first time under fire.

RUGGERS PRACTICE HARD FOR IMPORTANT GAME TOMORROW AFTERNOON

The backfield of the team is now considered in its best condition. Passes go clear to the end like a smooth working university bunch of backs. They had their last rigorous workout preceding the Saturday's tussle yesterday evening and showed up in fine shape.

The forwards trained under the direction of Hunky Barr and showed great form in dribbling, kicking and in the scrimmages.

Coach Maddox was out last evening and supervised the work. He will be out again this evening and will be on the side lines tomorrow afternoon.

Following practice last night, the long standing promise of Principal Tucker's, that he would treat the team to a "feed" in the event they should win the Centerville game, was fulfilled. Waffles and rye bread were the dish on the menu, and the "chem lab" was the scene of the "slaughter of the innocents" (dogs).

DOUBLE WEDDING OF RICHMONDERS AT SACRAMENTO

A double wedding of well known and popular Richmond young people will take place in Sacramento tomorrow afternoon. Walter La Selle of the furniture store of La Belle & Wright, and Charles Pulse of the grocery firm of Pulse Brothers are to be the bridegrooms. La Selle will marry Hester Rickabaugh and Pulse will be married to Hester's sister, Miss Ruth Rickabaugh.

Both girls are widely known in Richmond. They are sisters of Mrs. Lee D. Windrem and are members of several smart set clubs.

Following the ceremony the two couples will motor in Pulse's car throughout the southern part of the state. They will spend much of their joint honeymoon with friends in San Diego.

Both of the happy young men have heretofore been avowed bachelors and their decision to marry will be a distinct surprise to most of their friends.

An attempt had been made to keep secret the whole affair, but somebody talked.

The two couples will live in Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Pulse will reside at the Adena Apartments, where, in all probability, Mr. and Mrs. La Selle will also make their home.

Church To Give a Hallow'een Evening

A Hallow'een party will be held by the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church on the evening of October 31. The affair will be held in A. O. U. W. Hall. A committee consisting of Mrs. Henry Plate, Miss Marcella Hulanski, Miss Octavia Norton, Mrs. Carl Alexander, Mrs. Newsom and Mrs. J. C. Cowell is in charge.

"FATHER TIME" IS FEATURE

A feature of the Richmond Club parade last night was O. Poulsen's "Father Time," carrying a huge Elgin watch and a scythe. The man was well costumed for the part, being dressed in flowing robes and equipped with large wings. Father Time is the trademark of the Elgin Watch Company.

NEW MEMBER FOR LODGE

One new member in the person of Paul Iverson was adopted into Olive Homestead, Brotherhood of American Yeomen, at their meeting in Pythian Castle last night. He will be initiated at the large class initiation to be held in a few weeks' time.

A report from Mrs. Madge Mitchell is to the effect that she is rapidly improving and will soon be about.

George R. Jeffrey of Santa Rosa Homestead No. 1212 paid the lodge another of his frequent visits last night.

MOOSE ELECTION WILL BE HELD THURSDAY

Politics are again fretting the brow of local Moose, for at the meeting of the local paddock No. 550, in their hall last night, the nomination of officers was held. An election from the ranks of those nominated will be held Thursday night.

On the 16th inst. the local drill team and officers of the lodge will go to Oakland, where they will put on the initiatory and drill work for the Oakland lodge. This is an excellent acknowledgment of the worth of the local drill team, which is gaining a statewide reputation.

Plans are being perfected for the entertainment that the drill team will give the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, and their ladies, on October 22, in Moose Hall. Cards, dancing and a program will be the bill.

The big annual dance of the lodge will probably take place on the last Saturday in November at East Shore Park.

TRIAL TO BE RESUMED

The trial of Nathan Billett, for alleged desertion of his wife, was resumed yesterday, but only partly heard. It will be continued tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in Judge Lindsey's court.

Only about one-third of the testimony of the prosecuting witness was heard yesterday and owing to the lateness of the hour the case was postponed.

CHARMED BY PARADE, BOY GETS LOST

For several hours last night Charles, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. George Glum, was lost. The youngster with his mother was watching the Richmond Club parade when he disappeared. Mrs. Glum appealed to the police for assistance and for a time officers and a posse of citizens were busily at work looking for the lost lad. He was found by a neighbor and restored to his mother.

They Are Overdue But--

PETALUMA FACES ALMOST CERTAIN DEFEAT AT THE HANDS OF LOCAL HEROES

Petaluma is due to fall soon. In fact the Henery boys have been so long overdue that it looks as if they have lost sight of the "Gettinthe-neck" island. They just simply can not lose, it appears. Yesterday afternoon the writer and the club statistician resurrected the remains of the two previous games with Petaluma. In the first contest played at Petaluma, the locals were defeated by the score of 4 to 3. But four dinky hits were garnered off Gordon, while Burns, who relieved him, held the hen boys runless. It was a little bit of bush baseball that gave the victory to the Petaluma club. With Ingraham on third, Midget Childs, who was coaching, let the Elk first sacker take a lead, which resulted in Ingraham's being morgued.

In the second contest, played in this city, Petaluma romped home with the fat end of a 10 to 4 score. The Elks went to pieces in this match, making three errors and generally behaving like a bunch of football players. But since that eventful Sunday the local club has improved wonderfully. The team is now playing together. They have confidence in their pitcher, while Arlett and Gordon are both confident in their teammates.

With the same condition prevailing as in the past two games, the Elks will win. They are a cinch. Of course, it must be taken into consideration that the Healey crew has made some advancement. But Arlett in regular form should be able to hold the chicken town crowd to a very few tallies. In fact, we would not be surprised if he shut them out. This leaves it up to the local stickers. They are now slamming the innocent pellet at a merry pace, the team average being over the .300 mark.

Comparing the club man to man, there's little to choose. The Elks have the edge in hitting, while Arlett and Gordon are as formidable in the box as is Hollis. The only way to tell which is the better club Sunday will be to count the scores Sunday evening.

RICHMOND IS BASEBALL BUGHOUSE; CHICKEN TOWN GAME IS ATTRACTION

To say that this burg is enthused over the coming game is putting it mildly. The club headquarters are fairly swamped with inquiries. The local delegation will leave the San Pablo Quarries wharf at the end of the Macdonald avenue car line, at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. A good ship will carry the travelers to Vallejo and a train will do the rest. It is going to be some large time. On the boat the Richmond Concert Band will render syncopated melodies for the benefit of those who wish to dance. The band will also dish out moosik on the train and at the Petaluma grounds.

There is going to be all kinds of joy. Jack Best, the handsome manager of the Home Laundry, has contributed his share to the fun in the shape of several hundred noise producing megaphones. Best is a wild-eyed fan and thinks the Elks are just about the classiest bunch of ball tossers ever gathered together. Yes, Best will be amongst those present Sunday. He is also a candidate for chicken inspector and appears to have a pretty good chance of landing.

GOSH WHAT A RACE: LAST MAN YESTERDAY NOW IN FIRST PLACE; VOTES ARE PILING IN BY MILLIONS

The race for chicken inspector last night assumed greatly changed conditions. George Griffin, who was leading yesterday morning, has dropped down next to last place. J. C. Hitchcock is leading the array. A number of new nominations were received yesterday. These included Charlie Brown, Julius Stiefvater and Howard French. The latter will probably be disqualified, being connected with the baseball club.

The standing of candidates today is as follows:

J. C. Hitchcock	2,000,334,342,989
Eddie McPeake	2,000,123,331,578
Billy Campbell	2,000,000,989,999
Sandy Elsie	2,000,000,988,000
Wm. Martin	2,000,000,000,000
Ernest O'Brien	1,999,999,999,999
Bob Gruenhagen	1,999,999,999,998
Nate Lovelace	1,878,999,982,111
Herman Tuller	1,798,123,456,789
George Griffin	999,976,999,001
Charles Brown	1,000
Julius Stiefvater	1,000
Howard French	1,000

the straight dope on "em." I told her to go to the limit.

"Well," she answers, "my friend Magtha Raagg is stuck on a gink down in your town by the name of Johnny Ryan. He told Mag that he owned half the burg and that it was he who controlled the mint. Then another of my friends thinks that Roy Patterson is just about the classiest thing on two pins in the country. Howard French has a swell Jane on his staff here; as have Al Childs, Julius Stiefvater, Bob Cleek, Harry Hyatt and an Irish guy. I don't remember his name, although it reminds me of a brand of mush. Now, kid, are these lads coming up, or aren't they?"

For a moment I was nonplussed, but I was game. I suggested that we wash down a couple of suds before discussing the subject, and she acquiesced. After tipping over a couple I unfolded the following dope (censored):

"Is that so?" she asks. "Well, I'll be (censored). So the whole (censored) married. Well, listen, you poor boob," she continues, "I'm married, too." Then she suddenly cries, "Duck, kid, here comes my old man."

At this point Iema relapsed into unconsciousness.

He was brought back with a couple of shots and he continued: "I did my best to emulate the fowl of that species, but it was no go. The old man landed on me with both feet, a piano, a couple of steins and what furniture there was in the room. As they carried me out, I heard one gink remark: 'It serves him right; any guy that meddles with another fellow's wife should be cleaned up.' And here I am, friends, cleaned up."

There isn't a chance in the world for the great sporting authority, according to the attending physician. In addition to a fractured skull, two busted legs, and badly bent jaw, Iema has lost two perfectly good ribs, an ear, an eye and is suffering from numerous lacerations, cuts and bruises.

(Ed. Note.—Iema has one good story up his sleeve, which, if he holds out through the night, he will spring today. It (Continued on page seven)

Indiscretion has been the ruin of more than one man. So declared Mark Antony as he crossed the Great Gang Plank. Mark said something when he made that remark, too. Like Mark, who had dealings with Kid Cleopatra, Iema Samhandwich is a great chicken fancier. They brought what was left of the poor fellow into Richmond last night from Petaluma, where he had been detailed to get some inside info. on the baseball situation. It's a sad tale, mates, and one that will bring the tears into the eyes of the most brazen. In a weak voice, choked with sobs and an occasional ramble, Iema last night related his tale of woe.

"Things were going along right merrily," remarked the old scout, as the Doc gave him a shot of hop, "and I was getting along fine. I flagged a pretty swell looking squab, and we ambled into a family entrance. 'Say,' sez she to me, 'do you know many of those Richmond nuts?' Sure, I returned. 'Well,' sez she, 'we girls have lined up a couple of real lads in your town and I want you to give me

ESCAPED BANDIT

IS CAPTURED IN BUTTE

Frank Melville, the boy bandit, whose escape from San Quentin in company with James Hurley was responsible for the capture of Mooney, Brown and Hanlon, has been caught in Butte, Mont.

It was while a squad of local police officers and detectives were combing the Point Orient water front for the two escaped convicts that they happened upon the boat belonging to the three men.

The escape of Melville and Hurley over the walls of the San Quentin penitentiary will long be remembered as one of the most daring affairs ever perpetrated in that the men climbed out to the edge of the roof and dropped a distance of 60 feet to the beach below.

MAKING OF BOBBY BURNIT AT RICHMOND

Many of those who attended the Ye Liberty theater in the past few years will remember Jesse L. Lasky, the charming soubrette, who ruled the matinee crowds for many years. This popular actress has been secured to take the leading role "In the Making of Bobby Burnit," which appears at the Richmond theater today and tomorrow.

The Pathe Weekly has a change, for today, and shows the events on this side of the water. Fred Mac.

known as the best comedian in the movies, will also be on the bill today with "A Pair of Queens," as good a comedy as has been seen at the theater in some time.

PREPARE TO START TIDE LAND SUIT

Preparations are already in hand by City Attorney D. J. Hall to commence suit against the Santa Fe Railroad Company in the matter of determining the title to various tide lands.

The suit will probably be filed Saturday or the early part of next week.

In connection with the outer wharf and municipal highway, a provision called for the making of a test case of the matter. The suit will be wholly friendly between the railroad company and the city.

Approximately 500 acres of tide land may be affected by the decision in this case.

COL. WEINSTOCK IS HEARD BY BIG AUDIENCE

sation. Today every country but Turkey, in Europe, protects its workers. There are 25 states in the union with such laws.

"California's act is considered the best of all."

"The manufacturers have always charged up the wear and tear of machinery to overhead and operating expenses. They now charge up the wear and tear of human machinery to the same fund. The law has worked outmost only to the betterment of the workers and employes, but the entire satisfaction of the employers as well."

STATE INSURANCE BUSINESS

Speaking of California in the insurance business, Weinstock said: "The insurance has paid, and has been a godsend to the smaller employer. The state was forced to take a hand in the matter to protect all of the employers in the state from any possible evil effects of the law. The business has also paid its own way, and handed back the appropriation to the state treasury, which was set aside to start the proposition. They have also paid back in dividends to the employers."

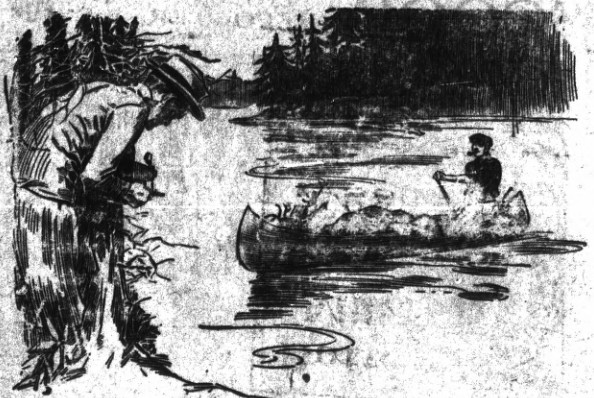

NO MACHINE, SAYS WEINSTOCK

As a contradiction to the attacks made on Governor Johnson, accusing him of building up a political machine with his many commissions, was given, in an account of the workings of the State Civil Service Board, who fill practically all state office positions on a basis of competition and merit.

The other speakers outlined the work of the Railroad Commission and the workings of the Board of Control.
